Montguyon, Charente-Maritime

Guide Price €649,000

An opportunity to purchase an extremely profitable commercial/shop business selling English products, together with a large and beautiful home.

The Domaine comprises the principal house, shop premises, three cottages, two salt water swimming pools, outbuildings and grounds which include six horse boxes, grazing land and five serviced camping pitches. With this unusual property there is also an excellent opportunity of being able to improve, considerably, the regular income from the existing shop business whilst living the "French dream". The additional earning potential comes from the fact that this property was (until 2005) a very popular and successful holiday rental business. With a total of 10 bedrooms and seven bathrooms providing 680m² of living space, set within approximately 5 acres of private landscaped grounds in a beautiful country location between Montguyon and Angouleme - it is easy to imagine. The main living accommodation is a beautiful 19th century manor house, or Domaine, (it is a historical and recognised local landmark) with its own tower, seven bedrooms, four bathrooms, original oak staircase and tiled floors, log burning fires, double glazing, fully fitted kitchen with attached prep. room, utility room and much,

ABOUT THE AREA

Situated in the South West of France, with horse riding, canoeing, nearby boating lakes which cater for all sorts of other water sports. There are some fantastic tennis courts close by as well. These are just a few examples of what is available a short drive away. In addition this property is not far from the medieval city of St. Emilion, the vineyards (and City) of Bordeaux and Cognac and the beautiful sandy beaches of the Atlantic coastline. The airports of Bordeaux, Angouleme, Bergerac, and Limoges are, on average, about one hour's drive from the property and thanks to the recent completion of the TGV visitors now have daily and regular access to the cosmopolitan city of Paris.
