A unique opportunity to own a country estate with over 31 hectares of private land, located within a beautiful natural landscape. With plenty of privacy and tranquillity and just a five-minute drive from Tavira. The 5-bedroom/ 3-bathroom single-level villa is reached from the main road via its own private drive. It is surrounded by green mature gardens that include palm trees. Arranged around a central space and decorated in a traditional style, the welcoming rooms offer warmth and the many windows and doors offer the opportunity to enjoy the countryside views. Each room has access to a terrace with the master bedroom opening on to an inner courtyard. The large open-plan living/dining area (over 80m²) has a wood burner and opens onto a covered terrace which leads to the swimming pool. The reading room, also part of the open-plan living area offers a comfortable snug and the dining table sits 12 people. The kitchen is accessed from the living/dining area and opens on to a shaded terrace with an extended outside kitchen and barbecue area that maintains the rustic spirit of the kitchen. There is also a cosy chill-out area located close to the pool. There are in total
