The front door leads into an entrance lobby, and then into the living room with window to front aspect. This is open to the dining area that has sliding doors that lead into a pleasant central courtyard garden, perfect for your morning coffee! To the front is a long galley kitchen that is fitted with a good range of storage units above and below the kitchen worktop. The kitchen is complete with double oven, gas hob, fridge, slimline dishwasher, sink and drainer with window to front aspect. adjacent to this is the utility room and guest cloakroom. There is a large bathroom with shower cubicle, bath, sink, WC, bidet, and window to side aspect. At the rear of the property are three bedrooms, with the largest benefitting from triple wardrobes. Externally, the property has driveway parking that leads to the single garage that has a power roller door. A side gate gives access to the gardens to side and rear, with fenced borders, and a rear gate that opens into woodland.

Inkerman Drive is a residential street with a mix of predominantly detached houses and bungalows. It is a popular, quiet location within walking distance of the local shops at Park Parade, Cedar Park School, as well as Widmer End Community Combined School, Holmer Green First and Secondary Schools. Hazlemere itself is a village located between the towns of High Wycombe, Amersham and Beaconsfield all of which offer train links to London. There are three separate parades of shops with a variety of retail and eateries and retail outlets schooling for children of all ages among them the renowned Cedar Park School for Infants and Widmer End Combined School, as well as public houses and a large recreation ground. Within walking distance of a doctors surgery, and close to local bus routes linking to the aforementioned towns,
