

Located in the charming village of Axbridge, is this handsome two-bedroom, mid terrace property which is filled with an abundance of country character and charm. This freehold home comprises a fantastic open plan kitchen/dining area, a lovely living room, cloakroom, two bedrooms and a well-presented bathroom. Outside, to the front of the property is a wonderful communal, enclosed garden area and to the rear you will find a private, courtyard, garden space with natural stone walling – the ideal spot for alfresco dining and relaxing throughout the warmer weather! There is also a communal car park which provides one allocated off-street parking space. Axbridge is a market town which sits at the foot of the Mendip Hills, and is nestled in amongst the beautiful Somerset countryside. The significant town was once part of a Saxon defence system against the Viking invaders, so its history goes back to King Alfred's time. Homes within this desirable area are most sought after and it goes without saying being surrounded by the beautiful open countryside is certainly an attractive feature of the area. The excellent schooling in the area is a huge attraction and the three school system of Weare First School, Hugh Sexey's and Kings of Wessex are favoured by many families. For the commuter, Junctions 21 and 22 are within reach which provides easy access to the M5 motorway. EPC Rating C74, Council Tax Band C.
