1 Main Street, Rosedale Abbey is an attractive period stone property, situated at the heart of the beautiful village of Rosedale Abbey. The accommodation whilst in need of modernisation has great scope to create a comfortable home, well suited to full time occupation or as a holiday cottage or second home.

In brief the accommodation amounts to 548 square feet in total and comprises; living room with multi-fuel stove, breakfast kitchen room, rear lobby and ground floor bathroom. On the first floor are two double bedrooms.

Outside there is a sheltered, west facing garden, partially lawned with a level area to the far end which would lend itself well to create a pleasant sitting out area.

Rosedale Abbey is a busy rural village and the principal settlement in the Rosedale Valley. The village is an important tourist destination and offers unrivalled opportunities for outdoor recreation within the National Park. Within the village is a bakery and stores, tea room, a public house and renowned glass-blowing workshop run by Gillies Jones. The village has a church and primary school and is ten miles from the market town of Pickering.
