GENERAL DESCRIPTION This really is a gorgeous home. Since the current vendors bought it, it has undergone a program of refurbishment extension and improvement, and benefits from having a lime mortar render which complements the look. There is an abundance of warm limestone throughout the house, carved in areas into features, which include an inscribed stone feature to the kitchen and pizza oven to the garden. Properties in such a secluded location, and having both the quality and character that this property exudes are rarely available, therefore it is without hesitation that we recommend an internal inspection in order to save disappointment.
