Property Introduction

Being offered for sale for the first time since being built to our vendors specification in 2007, this detached bungalow benefits from no onward chain.

Featuring three bedrooms with the principal bedroom having an en-suite shower room, the lounge enjoys an outlook to the front, there is a family bathroom and the kitchen/diner is of good proportions and has French doors opening onto the rear.

Heating is provided by a gas combination boiler supplying radiators and there is uPVC double glazing. The integral garage has plumbing for an automatic washing machine, ample parking is available on the driveway to the side and the rear garden is enclosed, secure for younger children and pets and features an extensive paved patio.

Situated at the entrance to this popular development, viewing our interactive virtual tour is strongly recommended prior to arranging a closer inspection.

Location

Situated on the Truro side of Redruth, the centre of the town will be found within a five minute drive and here one will find a mainline Railway Station which connects with London Paddington and the north of England and a range of both local and national shopping outlets.

The A30 trunk road is also within easy reach and the bungalow is conveniently located for access to the major town of Truro which is the commercial and cultural centre of Cornwall together with Falmouth on the south coast which is Cornwall's university town. Within five miles one will find the north coast village of Portreath which is noted for its sandy beach and active harbour.
