Mawnan Smith, Falmouth

£450,000 Freehold

Property Introduction

This fabulously sited semi-detached dormer bungalow is located on a working farm and enjoys some of the finest and most far-reaching rural views we have seen for some time. Offering four-bedroomed, two-bathroom accommodation, it is located between the ever-popular villages of Mawnan Smith and Constantine - a highly unusual home in a fabulous location. The property can be entered either through the entrance porch or via the kitchen door. The hall leads off to a dual aspect lounge and a separate dining room which in turn leads into the conservatory. The lounge and conservatory enjoy fabulous views across open farmland and the Cornish countryside, the kitchen is generous in size and has space for a small table if desired and a 'Rayburn'. There are two ground floor bedrooms and two further first floor bedrooms and a shower room.

The property benefits from double glazed windows, electric heating and has gardens to the front and rear - the rear garden bordering farmland and taking in the amazing position and aspect of this home. We understand that the property was built in 1969 to house the farm workers, the present owners are the one and only occupiers and have enjoyed their 50+ years of bringing up their family here. Located between Mawnan Smith and Constantine, this would appeal to someone who wants to enjoy the Cornish countryside, peace and quiet, but with some immediate neighbours between two of West Cornwall's most sought-after villages.

Location

The very sought-after villages of Mawnan Smith and Constantine are within a short car journey and offer a good range of local facilities. The Helford River is also close by with Port Navas Yacht Club being approximately 2.5 miles away. A nine-hole golf course is located on the outskirts of Mawnan Smith, and an eighteen-hole clifftop course is found in Falmouth. The town of Falmouth offers a wider range of banking and schooling facilities with Truro, the cathedral city, approximately a 30-minute car drive away. This is a superb rural home with various facilities and recreational activities within easy reach.

The rear garden is laid mainly to lawn and enjoys the views as previously described. There is a patio, decking area and shed with a garden containing a range of mature shrubs and bushes. The rear garden is gently sloping with walled and fenced boundaries, and again is an excellent feature of this home.

AGENT'S NOTE

The property is approached over the farm and uses the lane owned by the farm itself. We understand that a right of way exists for this to take place and no maintenance is required for the owners. The Council Tax band for the property is band 'B'.

SERVICES

Mains electric. Private water and private drainage. LPG gas. The property benefits from a private water supply, the responsibility of which is with the farm, and a contribution of £250.00 a year is made to the farmer to upkeep this. We advise any buyers to make their own enquiries about this. A clause will exist in the contract that a meter would need to be installed within three months of completion.
