Property Introduction

Situated close to the centre of town, this end terrace stone fronted house is being offered for sale chain free. Requiring a program of updating and modernisation, there are three bedrooms on the first floor and the ground floor offers a lounge, kitchen/dining room and a bathroom. The property has gas fired central heating and partial double glazing.

To the outside one will find an enclosed garden to the front with a driveway to the side which leads to the garage and gives parking for one vehicle. To the rear is an enclosed garden with steps up to the main garden which lies to the side and is largely laid to lawn and features a block built storage shed.

As stated, the property would benefit from some updating and modernisation and viewing our interactive virtual tour is strongly recommended prior to arranging a closer inspection.

Location

Situated less than half a mile from the centre of town, schooling for younger children is within walking distance in the lower part of Drump Road and at the higher part one will find a late night convenience store. Redruth offers an eclectic mix of local and national shopping outlets, there is a mainline Railway Station which connects with London Paddington and the north of England and within three quarters of a mile one will find an out of town superstore at the bottom of Tolgus Hill.

Redruth is also home to Kresen Kernow which is a mecca for those researching their Cornish roots and the A30 trunk road will be found within three quarters of a mile. Truro, the county town of Cornwall, is within ten miles, Falmouth on the south coast which is Cornwall's university town is within eleven miles and Portreath on the north coast will be found within five miles.
