19 East Street

A beautiful three bedroom semi detached property in East Street, Didcot. Renovated and updated to a very high standard while maintaining some of the beautiful original features. With a welcoming entrance hall which leads into the open plan lounge/dining area with the lounge benefiting from a working log burner. The generous kitchen with built in seating area looking out into mature garden offers a tranquil area. The kitchen with a lovely Belfast sink, built in oven and hot and space for white goods offers lots of storage and worktop space. The first floor has the stunning family bathroom with free standing bath and matching white suite. The bedrooms are split over two floors with the main bedroom and the third bedroom on the first floor and the second bedroom on the second floor. The main bedroom is generous in size with a recess space ideal for wardrobes and the third bedroom has an airing cupboard. The second bedroom situated on the top floor of the property offers beautiful views over old Didcot and the mature garden of the property. To the front of the property there is driveway parking for two vehicles and access into the well maintained mature garden with established plants, shrubs and trees. The property benefits from a home office cabin in the garden which has light, power and wifi access.
