

15 Whytbank Row is an extremely bright and spacious detached four-bedroom bungalow situated in the popular Borders village of Clovenfords, near Galashiels. The new Borders Railway, which runs from Tweedbank to Edinburgh, has a station in Galashiels and Stow which lie four and six and a half miles away respectively.

A family sized bungalow, the property sits in an elevated position enjoying excellent south easterly views over open countryside and the rolling hills.

Internally, the house comprises four bedrooms, two bathrooms (one ensuite), a large sitting room with separate dining area, and a kitchen.

Externally, the house sits on a good sized plot with garden ground surrounding the property. There is attractive terracing immediately outside of the property, from where to enjoy the views, and lawn and borders to the front and side.

There is also plentiful parking in the large driveway to the front, as well as an integral single garage to the side.

Edinburgh is easily accessible via the A7 just North of Clovenfords, as are most Border towns, and the Borders General Hospital, on the outskirts of Melrose, is approximately nine miles away.

Galashiels 4 miles. Edinburgh 32.5 miles. Stow 6.5 miles. Tweedbank 6 miles.

(All mileage is approximate)

Location:

15 Whytbank Row sits in an elevated position overlooking the village of Clovenfords which benefits from a hotel, a new primary school and a village shop. The thriving old mill town of Galashiels, to the East, with a population of 12,000 offers a fuller range of shopping facilities, including Tesco, ASDA, Boots, Next, WH Smith and Marks & Spencer. Local tourist attractions include Old Gala House and Abbotsford House, the former home of Sir Walter Scott, with its award winning visitor centre as well as many other attractions in nearby Melrose and other Border towns. Among the independent shops in Galashiels there is also a cinema, a health centre, a swimming pool, gym, dentists, orthodontist and a new Transport Interchange built primarily around the new train station in conjunction with the Borders Railway which is a particular bonus. Local sports teams include Gala RFC, Gala Fairydean FC, and Gala CC and local festivals include the historic Common Ridings held in the summer which is of particular note. There are also a variety of outdoor pursuits in the area that include fishing on the River Tweed, fieldsports, horse riding, golf, lawn bowling, mountain biking, and a selection of walks including the Southern Upland Way. Clovenfords has a primary school, with secondary schooling at Galashiels Academy. The Borders College and Heriot Watt University also have a campus in Galashiels, and there are also a number of churches in the area. The Borders General Hospital, the largest hospital in the Scottish Borders is approximately seven miles away, on the fringes of Melrose.

Clovenfords sits in an easily accessible area and can be reached by the nearby A7 which runs through to Galashiels and provides the links to Edinburgh or the north of England. The area is also served by the Borders Railway which recently opened and runs from Tweedbank to Edinburgh, with stops in Galashiels and Stow. There is also a busy bus service which runs from the Interchange in Galashiels, beside the railway, with links to Newcastle and Carlisle in the South, as well as Edinburgh and the other Border towns. Edinburgh International Airport also offers an excellent choice of destinations and lies 39 miles away.
