8 Lochend is an immaculately presented four-bedroom detached property located in Tweedbank, which lies between the Borders towns of Melrose and Galashiels.

Benefitting from charming views over Gun Knowe Loch the property is situated in a popular residential area, only a short distance from the new Borders Railway, which runs from Tweedbank to Edinburgh, and is a particular feature of this desirable location.

Internally, the house comprises four bedrooms, a family bathroom, an ensuite shower room, a large sitting room with dining area, a breakfasting kitchen, a conservatory, a utility room and a downstairs wc.

Externally, the property has extensive driveway with parking for several cars plus detached double garage with excellent attic space storage and a separate car port. The garden lies pre-dominantly to the side and rear and is mainly laid to lawn with attractive hedging, borders, a patio and views over the loch.

Edinburgh is easily accessible via the A68, or the A7 with most Borders towns readily available from this central location, as well as via the aforementioned Borders Railway.

Edinburgh 41 miles. Galashiels 2.5 miles. Melrose 2.5 miles
(All distances are approximate)

LOCATION:

8 Lochend is located in the popular village of Tweedbank which is the new home for the terminus of the Borders Railway which runs from Tweedbank to Edinburgh. Situated between Melrose and Galashiels, Tweedbank benefits from a popular restaurant, a shop, and a primary school, with secondary schooling at Galashiels Academy. With an approximate population of 1700 there is also sports centre, with running track, all weather hockey pitches, indoor bowling and a thriving industrial park. The Borders General Hospital, the largest hospital in the Scottish Borders is only a mile or so away, on the fringes of Melrose.

The old mill town of Galashiels to the West - with a population of 12,000, offers a full range of shopping facilities, including Tesco, ASDA, Boots, Next, WH Smith and Marks & Spencer. Local tourist attractions include Old Gala House and Abbotsford House, the former home of Sir Walter Scott, with its award winning visitor centre as well as many other attractions in nearby Melrose and other Border towns. Among the independent shops there is also a cinema, a health centre, a swimming pool, gym, dentists, orthodontist and a new Transport Interchange built primarily around the new train station in conjunction with the Borders Railway which is a particular bonus. Local sports teams include Gala RFC and Gala Fairydean FC, and local festivals include the historic Common Ridings held in the summer which is of particular note.

There are also a variety of outdoor pursuits in the area that include fishing on the River Tweed, fieldsports, horse riding, golf, lawn bowling, mountain biking, and a selection of walks including the Southern Upland Way.

Galashiels has six primary schools, and nearby Melrose is home to St Marys Preparatory School and secondary schooling is at Galashiels Academy. The Borders College and Heriot Watt University also have a campus in the town, and there are also a number of churches in the area.

Galashiels sits in an easily accessible area and can be reached by the A7 which runs through the town and provides the links to Edinburgh or the north of England. The area is also served by the Borders Railway which opened in September 2015 and runs from Tweedbank to Edinburgh, with a station in the town. There is also a busy bus service which runs from the Interchange, beside the railway with links to Newcastle and Carlisle in the South, as well as Edinburgh and the other Border towns.

Edinburgh and Newcastle airports - both international, offer an excellent choice of destinations and are 43 miles and 66 miles away respectively.

DIRECTIONS:

For those with satellite navigation the postcode is: TD1 3RY

Coming from Edinburgh take the A68 South, passing through Pathhead, Lauder and Earlston. On reaching the roundabout, approximately three miles outside Earlston, turn right onto the A6091 Signposted Melrose and Galashiels. Continue on this road and proceed over the first roundabout, taking the third exit on the second roundabout into Tweedbank and onto Tweedbank Drive.

Turn first available left into Abbotsferry Road and then first right into Lochend and follow the road to the end of the cul-de-sac. 8 Lochend sits in the top left corner, with double garage and car port.

From the South, follow the A68 through St. Boswells and turn left at the aforementioned roundabout and follow the instructions from there.
