

41 Lairburn Drive is an immaculately presented and spacious four/five-bedroom detached house, set in a generous corner plot within a modern development in the popular Borders village of Clovenfords, near Galashiels. The Borders Railway, which runs from Tweedbank to Edinburgh, has a station in Galashiels and Stow which lie four and six and a half miles away respectively.

A flexible family home the property sits in an elevated position enjoying excellent views over the village and the open countryside which are a particular feature.

Internally, the house comprises four main bedrooms, an ensuite bathroom, an ensuite shower room, a family bathroom, a sitting room, a dining room, a dining kitchen, a study/bedroom five, a utility room and a downstairs wc. Externally, there is plentiful parking in the driveway to the front of the generous double garage with lawn frontage and gated access to the enclosed garden to the rear. The back garden is predominantly laid to lawn with extensive decking which is accessed directly from the dining kitchen providing an excellent space for outside entertaining.

Edinburgh is easily accessible via the A7 just North of Clovenfords, as are most Border towns, as well as the Borders General Hospital, on the outskirts of Melrose, which is approximately nine miles away. Galashiels 4 miles. Edinburgh 32.5 miles. Stow 6.5 miles. Tweedbank 6 miles. (All mileage is approximate)

Location:

41 Lairburn Drive sits in an elevated position overlooking the village of Clovenfords which benefits from a hotel, a new primary school and a village shop. The thriving old mill town of Galashiels, to the East, with a population of 12,000 offers a fuller range of shopping facilities, including Tesco, ASDA, Boots, Next, WH Smith and Marks & Spencer. Local tourist attractions include Old Gala House and Abbotsford House, the former home of Sir Walter Scott, with its award winning visitor centre as well as many other attractions in nearby Melrose and other Border towns. Among the independent shops in Galashiels there is also a cinema, a health centre, a swimming pool, gym, dentists, orthodontist and a new Transport Interchange built primarily around the new train station in conjunction with the Borders Railway which is a particular bonus. Local sports teams include Gala RFC, Gala Fairydean FC, and Gala CC and local festivals include the historic Common Ridings held in the summer which is of particular note. There are also a variety of outdoor pursuits in the area that include fishing on the River Tweed, fieldsports, horse riding, golf, lawn bowling, mountain biking, and a selection of walks including the Southern Upland Way. Clovenfords has a primary school, with secondary schooling at Galashiels Academy. The Borders College and Heriot Watt University also have a campus in Galashiels, and there are also a number of churches in the area. The Borders General Hospital, the largest hospital in the Scottish Borders is approximately seven miles away, on the fringes of Melrose.

Clovenfords sits in an easily accessible area and can be reached by the nearby A7 which runs through to Galashiels and provides the links to Edinburgh or the north of England. The area is also served by the Borders Railway which recently opened and runs from Tweedbank to Edinburgh, with stops in Galashiels and Stow. There is also a busy bus service which runs from the Interchange in Galashiels, beside the railway, with links to Newcastle and Carlisle in the South, as well as Edinburgh and the other Border towns. Edinburgh International Airport also offers an excellent choice of destinations and lies 39 miles away.
