

Amulree is an immaculate and stylishly presented three-bedroom detached bungalow situated in the village of Maxton, only a mile and a half from the popular Borders village of St. Boswells. The property sits in a large plot with attractive garden, two garages and offers excellent family living.

The new Borders Railway station at Tweedbank is only eight and a half miles away, and the A68 only a mile or so away both providing excellent transport links to Edinburgh and the North of England.

Lying across one level the accommodation comprises of three bedrooms, all with wash hand basins, a bathroom, a wet room, a sitting room with dining area and conservatory off, with attractive Swedish oak flooring, a breakfasting kitchen, a utility room and a wc.

There is also good internal and external storage which is particularly useful.

Externally, there is private driveway parking to the front of the two garages, and gated access to the front porch. The garden ground surrounds the property with gravelled area, shrubs and trees. A particular feature of this property is the garden and the extensive lawn to the rear, with terracing, well stocked borders, hedging and fencing plus a gate to a field at the back, offering excellent dog walking.

Most Border towns are readily accessible from the area, as is Berwick-upon-Tweed which has a mainline railway connection to Edinburgh, Newcastle and London. The Borders Railway, running from Tweedbank to Edinburgh, lies approximately eight and a half miles away and adds to the accessibility of the St. Boswells area.

Location:

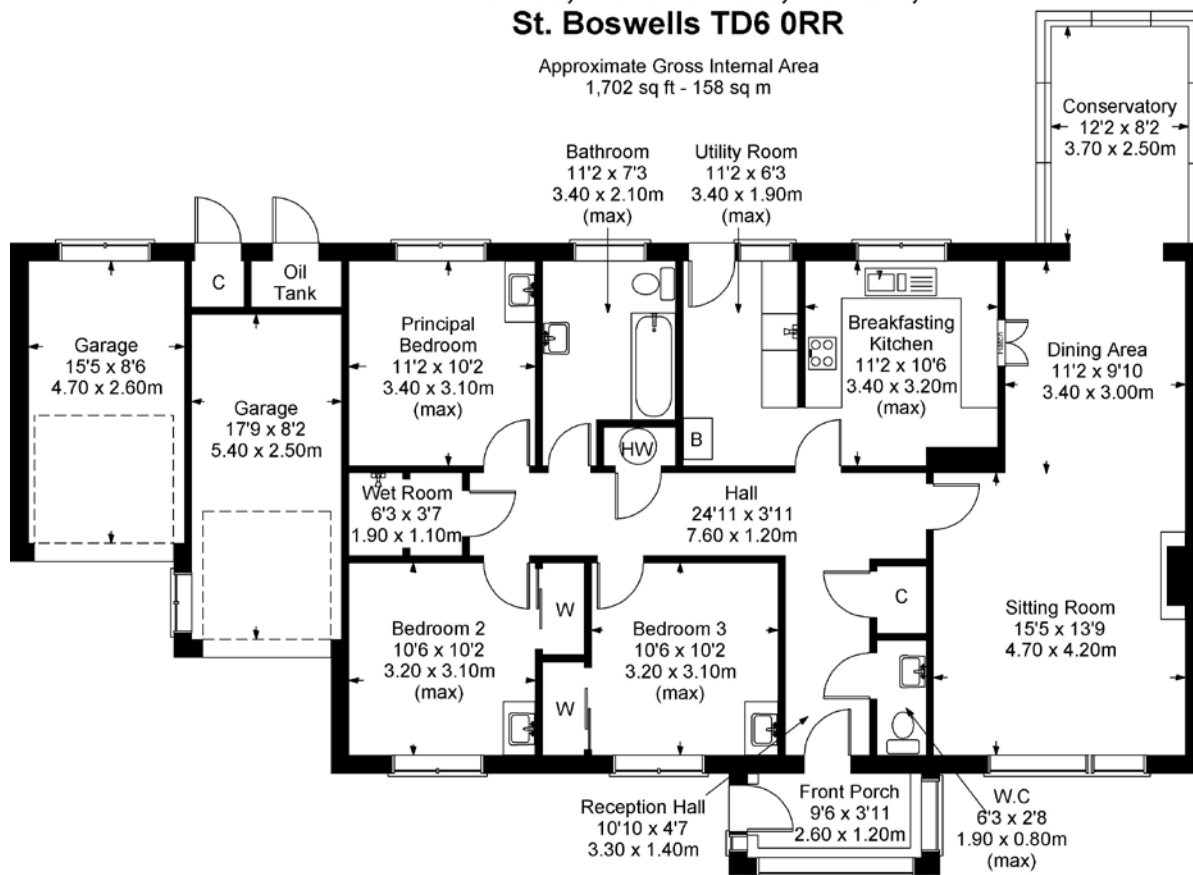

Amulree is located in the charming village of Maxton only one and a half miles from the popular Borders village of St. Boswells, which benefits from the famous Buccleuch Arms Hotel with Blue Coo Bistrot, a Co-op supermarket, an award winning bookshop, a garage, local cricket, tennis, golf and rugby clubs and a variety of small shops. There is also a highly regarded primary school and the property is also within the Earlston High School catchment. Nearby Melrose offers a wider range of amenities as well as the well respected St Mary's Preparatory School. The area is one of great scenic beauty with the River Tweed snaking its way through the Borders countryside with its pretty towns and villages. Fishing, golf, shooting, horse riding, mountain biking and walking are all readily available. Kelso (10 miles away) is a thriving market town with a larger array of amenities including a racecourse, the historic Floors Castle, home of the Duke of Roxburghe, and a championship golf course. Alternatively, Galashiels has a large selection of High Street names such as Tesco, ASDA, Next and Marks & Spencer, with Kelso also benefitting from a Sainsburys supermarket.

St. Boswells sits off the A68 which is the main route between Edinburgh to the North and Newcastle to the South, with International airports located in these cities. Berwick-upon-Tweed, reachable in under one hour has a mainline railway serving the East Coast, and a fast train to London taking around four hours. The new Borders Railway, running from Tweedbank to Edinburgh, and lies approximately eight and a half miles away and adds to the accessibility of the St. Boswells area.
