The Property

Highbank is a well-proportioned double-fronted detached 1970s family house with wrap around gardens.

The rooms are generous, particularly the sitting room, which stretches from the front to the back of the house.

Both the sitting room and dining room feature large bay windows that look over the garden to the front. The sitting room also has sliding doors to the rear and a feature fireplace. The dining room and hallway feature original parquet wood flooring.

It is considered the kitchen, bathroom and carpets would benefit from being updated.

Upstairs there are four double bedrooms and a shower room. Views out to the recreation ground can be seen from the first floor windows.

There is also a generous, part-boarded loft with fixed ladder.

The house sits fairly centrally in its plot, which amounts to about 0.19 of an acre, with a good stretch of lawn to the front of the house, well screened from the lane by mature hedging and with an iron gate leading out to the driveway. To the side and rear of the house are further areas of garden with paved patios, planted beds and borders, and to the rear of the garage is a further paved area with a garden shed, compost site and potting bench. There is also space for a greenhouse.

The driveway will accommodate a few cars in tandem and leads to the detached double garage, which has power and lighting and a side pedestrian door.

Location

The property is situated in an elevated position on South View Road on the North-Western edge of the popular market town of Wadhurst, voted the best place to live in the UK in 2023, by the Sunday Times. The Sparrows Green area of Wadhurst, where this property is located, has a convenience store, barber shop, veterinary clinic, service garage, Chinese and fish and chip take-away venue, primary school and nursery, all within half a mile of the house.

The centre of Wadhurst offers more amenities including a local Jempsons supermarket with post office, cafes, an art gallery, book shop, butcher, pharmacy, doctor, dentist, optician and much more. It also has Uplands Academy and the Sacred Heart Catholic School.

Wadhurst has a great community spirit, with lots of clubs and activities to get involved with. It is also on the doorstep of Bewl Water Reservoir and miles of footpaths leading through the beautiful surrounding countryside, designated as an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.
