Not many properties enjoy such a mesmerising view as Springhill House. The lovely home enjoys elevated, uninterrupted, panoramic views over the Cumbrian countryside and the Solway Firth with Scotland visible in the distance. The property which is set over three floors and boasts a wealth of charm and character which include exposed original lintels and ceiling beams. Set on the outskirts of the village of Distington, the property has a rural feel but is only a 10 minute drive to the towns of Whitehaven and Workington, with a wide range of shops, amenities and schools. The Cumbrian coastline is also just a short drive away, and the picturesque Western Fells and lakes are within easy reach. Nestled at the end of a quiet country lane, there is only one adjoining property, therefore providing the peace and tranquility that the Cumbrian countryside offers. The property is positioned on a spacious plot, with a substantial gated driveway which provides plenty of off-street parking. There is also a garage and outbuilding. The garden enjoys the sun throughout the day and is a lovely place in which to enjoy the views to the accompaniment of birdsong. The ground floor of the property has a conservatory which has fantastic views. There is a spacious dining room and lovely lounge with a wood burning stove. An inner hall leads through to the beautiful kitchen/diner which has everything a kitchen needs. Beyond the kitchen you will find a utility room and stylish WC. Heading up to the first floor there are two large double bedrooms, both enjoying a lovely view. The spacious, four-piece family bathroom is also located on the first floor. To the second floor, there are a further two large double bedrooms. Properties with so much to offer are rather rare. To view the property, to appreciate the views, its space and location please contact the office and we will arrange an appointment.
