

Charles Bainbridge

31 Pippin Close, Ash,
Canterbury, Kent, CT3 2AU

£325,000

An attractive end-terrace modern house in an enviable setting at the end of a small cul-de-sac in the popular village of Ash. The property is attractively presented throughout and the accommodation includes a substantial sitting room and attractive kitchen/dining room, comprehensively fitted and with French doors overlooking and opening onto the garden. There is a w.c and from the hall stairs rise to the first floor. There are three bedrooms, the master bedroom enjoys an ensuite shower room, and the family bathroom is attractively fitted with a matching suite including a shower over the bath. The property benefits from double glazed windows and gas fired central heating.

To the front of the property are two parking spaces with an adjacent lawn and a paved path leads to the front door. There is an attractively landscaped and well-maintained rear garden that includes a paved area with a pergola above onto the substantial lawn with well-stocked beds to the rear including mature shrubs and small trees. There is a decked seating area with an adjacent summerhouse beyond which is a shingled area with attractive pond and mature shrubbery borders. A path to the side gives access to a gate leading to the front.

The property is set in an attractive cul-de-sac location in the popular village of Ash. Ash is a well-served village with a mini supermarket, general store, and pharmacy. There is a choice of pubs in the village, a doctor's surgery, and two primary schools. The market town of Sandwich is nearby to the east and the Cathedral City of Canterbury is easily accessible to the west. The outlying countryside offers lovely walking, cycling, and riding.
