About this property

Offered with no onward chain a well presented three bedroom terraced house located in the popular, rural village of Llanelly Hill, six miles or so from the vibrant market town of Abergavenny, on the edge of the Bannau Brycheiniog National Park. The property has been redecorated recently and offers generous accommodation throughout with the ground floor comprising a living room with log burning stove, kitchen and a hall with stairs to the first floor. Upstairs there are three bedrooms and a modern family bathroom. The property is set back behind a walled front garden with fabulous views across the Clydach Gorge. There is a parking space for one vehicle to the front of the property. This is a charming home within a popular, rural village community, yet within easy reach of the extensive amenities on nearby Abergavenny and Crickhowell.

About the location

Llanelly Hill is a small village located on the top of the mountain overlooking Clydach Gorge, the Sugarloaf and Black Mountains. It is an area of great natural beauty with extensive woods offering beautiful walks, and is also a perfect spot for cyclists with a UK cycle way close by. The village boasts the well regarded Jolly Colliers Inn which has become an increasingly popular destination across the area due to its excellent cuisine and vibrant atmosphere. Further local amenities are available in the large village of Gilwern two miles away which is well served with a number of small shops, a post office, village hall, library, garage, and several pubs.

Directions

From Abergavenny take the A465 towards Merthyr Tydfil and continue for approximately 3 miles, crossing over the Gilwern roundabout, then take the left at the second mini roundabout signposted Clydach South. At the T-junction turn right and follow the hill into the village and turn right into Quarry Road. Continue for 1 mile, continue to the end of this road then take the right turn into Miners Row and the house is on the left hand side after a short distance.
