About this property

A two bedroom end of terrace house located in Willow Court, a sought after modern, residential development in Llantilio Pertholey on the northern fringe of Abergavenny. The property affords well balanced accommodation with the ground floor comprising a 14' lounge, kitchen/diner with French doors to the garden and downstairs WC. Upstairs there are two double bedrooms and a family bathroom. To the rear is a south facing low maintenance enclosed garden with gated side access, comprising a patio to the fore and artificial lawn. The property further benefits from driveway parking for two cars directly to the front, and a quiet cul-de-sac position within a popular residential location that is within easy reach of the wide ranging amenities of Abergavenny's town centre.

About the location

A popular market town nestled amidst the Seven Beacons with its skyline dominated by the Blorenge and the Sugar Loaf mountains, Abergavenny is known as the 'Gateway to Wales'. It is situated twelve miles from the English border and just south of the Black Mountains in the Brecon Beacons National Park. Steeped in history Abergavenny was originally a Roman Fort then a medieval walled town. It is now a market town with arguably more life than nearby Usk and Monmouth. It offers a wide range of amenities with major supermarkets, popular bi-weekly, a high street comprising of recognized chains and local department stores, leisure centre, a number of churches and Nevill Hall Hospital. Abergavenny, is world renowned for its Food Festival which brings the UK's best chefs and culinary experts to the town every September. The town also offers a rich and vibrant range of cultural options including the Borough Theatre which offers an all year round programme of professional and amateur events, and the annual Abergavenny Writing Festival. Its location means that Abergavenny acts as the major transport hub for the area. The railway station allows easy access to anywhere on the rail network. The A465, Heads of the Valleys Road is one mile out of town with the M50 / M4 a further 25 minutes away.

Directions

From our office on Cross Street (NP7 5EU) follow Monk Street (A40) north miles as it becomes Hereford Road. After 1.3 miles turn left into Maindiff Drive and then the first right into Hanratte Close.
