

Primrose House, 33Wycombe Road, Prestwood, Great Missenden, Buckinghamshire, HP16 0NZ

A spacious semi-detached, Victorian-inspired, four bedroom, two bathroom, two reception-room, semi-detached, houses located in the heart of Prestwood village. The property offers old fashioned grandeur with modern efficiency and amenity.

Entrance hall | Cloakroom | Sitting room | Utility Room | Kitchen/dining/family room | Master bedroom with ensuite | Three further bedrooms | Family bathroom | Driveway parking

Primrose House is an elegant semi-detached property, built to be in keeping with neighbouring, character properties; with high ceilings, generously proportioned rooms and authentic touches such as double-glazed sash windows to the front.

The ground floor is fitted with engineered oak flooring and there is under-floor heating throughout. The entrance hall features an illuminated, built-in wine rack under the stairs behind glass doors. The sitting room is front aspect with a bay window and log burning stove. The sitting room and kitchen diner are separated by a utility room and cloakroom. The principle reception room is the stunning dining/kitchen that is fitted with a two tone kitchen of deep navy and drift-wood effect units with granite work surfaces with integrated appliances. A set of bi-fold doors links the house with the level gardens beyond.

Upstairs, the generous, rear aspect, master bedroom has been fitted with a comprehensive range of quality fitted wardrobes and has a well-appointed en-suite shower room. There are two further double bedrooms and a single bedroom/study and family bathroom.

Outside; there are two allocated parking spaces adjacent to the front of the house plus two additional shared visitor parking spaces at the rear. The gardens are level and enclosed.
