Located at the end of a cul-de-sac in an elevated position, 9 Reyners Green is a large, detached, imposing property.

The entrance hall is fitted with parquet flooring and opens out into a dining hall, with the formal sitting room on one side and the kitchen area on the other. A couple of steps on the left of the entrance lead down to a generous shower room and front aspect study/office. Adjacent to this is the double aspect sitting room with a feature log burner and open room divider to the dining hall. French doors from the sitting room lead into the sealed unit conservatory and from there to the main part of the garden. An unusual, and interesting, feature of this property is the fact that the ground floor is across a few levels, linked with very short flights of stairs. The sitting room has two such flights either side of the chimney wall. Similarly, there are two separate entry points into the kitchen at either side of the dining hall. The kitchen is fitted with a comprehensive range of cream gloss units including a central island with a quartz worksurface and the usual selection of integrated appliances, including a double oven, hob, fridge freezer and dishwasher. A run of bifold doors at the rear open out onto a patio at the back of the house. The family room is at the front end of the kitchen and down a couple of steps giving good demarcation to the two areas. A door from the kitchen leads to the utility room and to a second cloakroom.

An iron and open tread staircase leads from the entrance hall to the first floor where there are four bedrooms. Three doubles served by the family bathroom and the master with an ensuite and dressing room, which is slightly apart from the other bedrooms.

Outside, the property is approached across a tarmac driveway leading to a covered parking area and the garage with automatic garage door, power and light. The property sits on a wide plot with the largest area of garden being over to the left, adjacent to the conservatory. Doors from the kitchen lead out to a patio behind the kitchen and another area of lawn running alongside the dining hall and sitting room. The plot is screened with mature shrubs and trees and has a high degree of privacy.
