Chiltern Road, Ballinger is a very popular, peaceful, no-through road of mixed properties, the majority having substantial gently sloping gardens. Cherry Hill is a well-presented, semi-detached chalet bungalow set amongst other, similar properties.

The entrance hall and dining room have recently been fitted with hard wearing, low maintenance LVT flooring that takes the eye through the house. The square, main bedroom is immediately on the right and is front aspect, behind this is another bedroom (currently used as a spare sitting room/study) which overlooks the garden.

The family bathroom is central between the bedrooms and main living area and is fitted with a white suite comprising of bath, with thermostatically controlled power shower over, W.C, and basin.

The main living area is on the left of the house with the formal dining room and kitchen both being rear aspect. Both of which have large, picture windows that provide great views of the lovely garden and woodland beyond. The kitchen is fitted with a range of textured-effect, beige units with integrated double oven and ceramic hob plus space and plumbing for a dishwasher and free-standing fridge.

The main sitting room is off the dining room and is front aspect with a feature open fireplace with an unusual, marble surround and mantel.

Stairs from the entrance hall lead to the first floor where there are two, almost-identical bedrooms, both with Velux windows overlooking the garden and woods, one with eaves storage.

Outside, a door from the kitchen leads to the broad, paved, side access from where a door leads to the back of the garage which has been converted into a useful utility room with ample space for a washing machine and tumble drier and in which a large cupboard opens to reveal the oil-fired boiler and pressurised hot water cylinder. The garage has been divided in half with a door linking the two areas, the front being more for garden/paint etc storage.

The paved side passage leads to a few steps down to the garden which is laid mainly to lawn with well-stocked, mixed flower and shrub borders bounded by clipped hedging. A gate at the end of the garden gives access to the woods and footpaths beyond. To the front there is driveway parking for a couple of cars and a further area of lawn interspersed with shrub beds, to the front is a well-clipped hedge.
