Meadow Holme, Wroxham Road, Coltishall, Norfolk, NR12 7EA

Meadow Holme is a vacant riverside property, with a private mooring, and no onward chain. It presents as an ideal family home, escape to the country or as a holiday let. Formerly part of the Maltings, Meadow Holme affords a unique opportunity to acquire a slice of local history in a stunning location positioned on the bend of the river affording views to the river green and marshes.

Located within the picturesque village of Coltishall, referred to as the Gateway to the renowned Norfolk Broads, the property benefits from easy access to the grassy staithe along the River Bure, that stretches to the fashionable riverside eateries including the Kings Head and The Rising Sun. Less than a mile away is the centre of the charming Georgian village high street with its local amenities including a medical centre, independent retailers and the outstanding Primary School.

The property is approached from a track along Wroxham Road that provides access to a beautifully landscaped rear garden with manicured lawns bordered by paved walkways, areas of relaxation and a garden workshop. A walkway at the front of the property along the river provides additional access.
