A surprisingly spacious, attractive, three double bedroom extended semi-detached property, which boasts well-presented accommodation, along with generous grounds and with an extensive tarmac frontage offering parking for many vehicles.

There is a superb 21' x 17'10" living/dining/kitchen at the front of the house. The 17'10" x 15'6" lounge spans the rear of the property, which is a real treat backing on to the lovely garden.

Attractive spindle stairs take you up to a large landing with wall to wall built in storage cupboards - a most useful feature. There are three double bedrooms, and bedrooms one and two have recessed built in wardrobes. There is a refitted four-piece bathroom, with oak fronted cabinets, a bath and a separate shower cubicle. The grounds are impressive too.

The frontage comprises a valuable extensive tarmac driveway with block edging, enabling parking for many vehicles. A covered side storage passage gives gated access to the internal side entrance hall and further gated access leads to the rear garden. Presented in three usable stages the rear garden comprises a large patio adjacent to the property, a lawned section and an attractive summerhouse with patio surround. A hidden lower garden area houses a workshop/office.

The property enjoys a non-estate location located on the fringe of Congleton Town Centre. Access to the many local amenities are easily accessible such as Congleton's award-winning park, the Paddling Pool, Theatre and Leisure Centre. Access to the Biddulph Valley Way is opposite the property. This is a formed track where you can walk, cycle or run in to the glorious Cheshire open Countryside for miles. Brook Street links easily to all major routes and is favourable for those travelling in the Macclesfield/Leek direction.
