101 The Hobbins, Bridgnorth

An ideal property for the growing family on the outskirts of Low Town enjoying a semi-rural outlook and handily situated for easy access to Stanmore Country Park and other local walks.

Comprising in brief of an entrance hallway, sitting room with wood burning stove, full width breakfast kitchen with fitted appliances, French doors to the rear garden and useful area for those wishing to work from home, three generous bedrooms (master having plenty of fitted wardrobe storage) and a larger than average family bathroom.

Newly replaced UPVC double glazing and LPG central heating.

A pleasant and private garden can be found to the rear, occupying a plot which lends itself ideally for an extension (STPP).

Parking on the front elevation and outside as well as off road parking on the edge of the green.

A popular location whereby most of the properties are two bedrooms, this being one of the few three bedroomed homes.
