Description

Springlands comprises an enchanting Grade II Listed country house with its own picturesque lakes and secluded glorious grounds: truly a rural idyll. With beautiful views over its gardens and lakes towards the distinctive ridge of the South Downs on the horizon, the house is also ideally positioned for excellent local amenities and convenient commuting from Haywards Heath, Burgess Hill or Hassocks stations. Springlands is within convenient driving distance of the popular and busy villages of Henfield and Hurstpierpoint (c. 4 miles & c. 4.5 miles respectively), and almost equidistant between Gatwick airport and the vibrant coastal city of Brighton and Hove. Hidden from the road, the house is approached through a pair of wrought iron gates mounted on brick pillars which open to a long driveway leading up to the house and passing the land.

Dating from the 16th and 19th centuries, the property combines fabulous historic character and charm with modern conveniences and luxurious additions. Period features include inglenook fireplaces, a number of exposed timbers, two priest holes, a flagstone floor in the reception hall and beautiful oak panelling in the sitting room. The house offers generous family accommodation, with particularly large room sizes and unusually high ceiling heights and natural light for a house of this age.

Springlands is a versatile home that combines cosy and comfortable family life with a capacity to host entertaining on a grand scale. There is also excellent potential (subject to all consents) to convert two of the four large attics into a further en-suite bathroom and a sixth bedroom or childrens den. The floorplan gives a comprehensive overview of the full extent of the accommodation and its layout, but there are a number of points worthy of particular note.

The studded oak front door opens to an impressive part-panelled reception hall with a working inglenook fireplace. There are a further three characterful reception rooms including panelled sitting room with parquet floor and a second working inglenook fireplace as its focal point, a separate cosy family room and a versatile gym.

The superbly appointed kitchen, dining and family room forms the hub of the home and is fitted with a range of bespoke cabinetry and a central island, with granite worktops, integrated appliances and a Rangemaster oven. There is ample space for a large dining table and sofas, and a square bay set with French doors at the Southern end of the room perfectly frames the views of the gardens and lakes to the South Downs in the distance. A cloakroom, boot room, utility room and laundry room complete the ground floor.

There are five large double bedrooms arranged over the first and second floors, including a generous principal suite with a large en-suite bathroom and wonderful views. Three of the remaining bedrooms have their own vanity units with wash basins and the fifth bedroom has an opportunity to create its own en-suite bathroom (subject to consents). The principle en-suite bathroom is large enough to accommodate a fourth bathroom if so desired and as well as the potential for en-suites to be created to other bedrooms.

The gardens and grounds to Lot 1 are of particular note and together with adjacent pasture land and woodland extend overall to approximately 11.43 acres (4.63Ha).

These grounds are established and well-stocked with a number of mature specimen trees offering a high degree of privacy, and a haven for a huge variety of wildlife. The house sits almost centrally within the grounds, overlooking the tree-lined lakes, which extend away from the house to the South. The gardens closer to the house are informally divided into various areas and include an expanse of lawn lying to the East dotted with fruit trees (the 'sports garden') and an excellent enclosed 'leisure garden' with swimming pool, hot tub, two cabins, poolside bar and terraces: ideal for summer entertaining and al-fresco dining.

The pasture land lies to the East and North of the house and also bordering the further land forming part of Lot 2 to the South. There are three picturesque ponds forming part of Lot 1 and an area of glorious deciduous woodland extending to the North with a magnificent display of bluebells in the spring. Lot 1 also includes planning permission (ref. DC/21/151 granted 12th May 2022) for equestrian facilities including six stables, tack and feed rooms, hay barn, wash-down area and manege (40m x20m). In addition, there is planning consent (ref. DC/21/0820 granted on 8th September 2021) for a detached garage with home office over.

Lot 2 extends to c. 6.5 acres (2.63 Ha) and includes a large pasture field to the South of Lot 1 and with access from the shared entrance drive as well as planning consent for a new access to the South and which in turn would serve a proposed agricultural barn as granted under planning consent SC/21/1550 on 28th January 2022. Lot 2 also includes the largest lake providing wonderful recreational opportunities as well as being a haven for wild and birdlife.

Lot 3 extending to c. 7.7 acres (3.14 Ha) lies to the West of the entrance drive with gated access therefrom and comprises a gently sloping South facing agricultural field also enjoying a fine rural outlook.
