Hillside, Glaisdale North Yorkshire

Hendersons are pleased to introduce Hillside to the market a delightful stone built detached bungalow situated in the picturesque village of Glaisdale. Offering stunning views out towards the dale, the substantial windows of this property allow a wealth of natural light to flood the eclectic interior, framing the landscape perfectly.

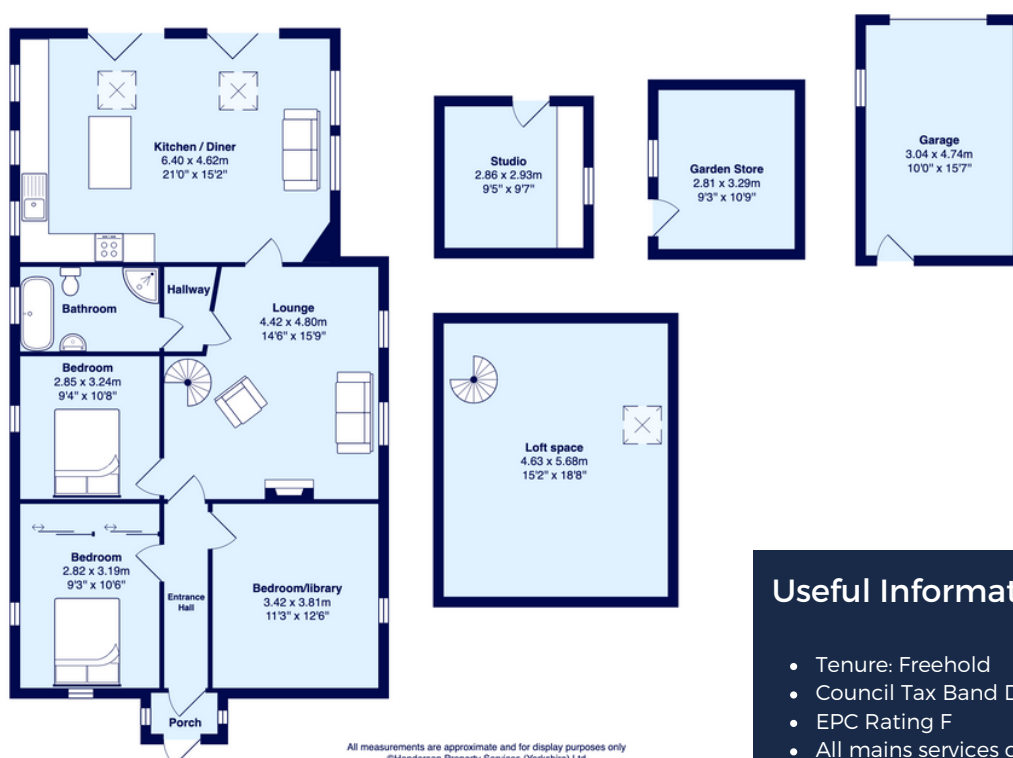

Having three double bedrooms, of which one is currently used as a library/bedroom, this property offers a very workable layout. The lounge has super proportions and feels spacious, featuring a cosy traditional log burner along with a wrought iron spiral staircase, complimented by stylish oak flooring. Off the lounge, via a separate hallway with storage, you will find the elegant family bathroom with contemporary fitted suite and separate shower.

Leading on from the lounge you will enter the very spacious, light filled kitchen/dining space. This room really is a beautiful addition to the property, with its high vaulted ceiling, skylights and access to the sun terrace via the wooden bi folding doors, it's the real hub of the home. The kitchen cabinetry is both modern and sleek, featuring integrated appliances and an island that adds to the social element of this space perfectly, it also boasts the luxury of underfloor heating.

Externally, you will find approx 2 acres of land, where the beautiful views can be enjoyed from many aspects. There is a stone built studio, which could make an ideal workshop, and positioned conveniently within the mature gardens you will find a garden store and garage also.

This property really does offer it's new owner everything needed to enjoy a more rural pace of life in an idyllic setting.
